WELCOME TO SEOUL, KOREA !

Korea, once known as the "Land of the Morning Calm," boasts a rapidly growing economy and lifestyle that combine the best of the old and new.

Seoul, one of the most modern cities in the world, is the dynamic heart of Korea. Home to the nation's political and financial institutions, you will be delighted by the thriving commerce and exciting culture.

Seoul, the ancient capital of the Joseon Dynasty, is a city rich with historical treasures waiting to be explored. Ancient royal palaces grace the mountainous landscape with traditional-style homes offering a glimpse into a bygone era.

Come to where the past and the present live together in perfect harmony.

Come to Seoul, and experience both the flavor of traditional Korean culture and the excitement of this fascinating metropolitan city.

INVITATION

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is my great pleasure to invite you to the 1st Asia-Oceanian Congress for NeuroRehabilitation (AOCNR 2015) hosted by the Korean Society for NeuroRehabilitation to be held September 3-5, 2015 in Seoul, Korea.

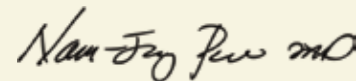

As the first-ever congress for NeuroRehabilitation professionals in the region, AOCNR 2015 will feature the highest standard of scientific programs that reflect the unique characteristics of the Asia-Oceania area with diverse social networking events catering to the specific needs of all our participants. The AOCNR 2015 Scientific Programs is proud to bring together eminent speakers and delegates from all over the world to share the most up-to-date developments, research results, and accomplishments in the field of NeuroRehabilitation.

You will find Seoul is a dynamic city full of charm. In addition to its deep historical and cultural heritage, it offers all the possible conveniences and world-class facilities of the international megalopolis it has become today. September, with its pleasant weather, is the best time to enjoy the beautiful natural sceneries that the capital has to offer.

AOCNR 2015 will impart a wealth of events to see, learn, and take away in long-lasting memories, so I am delighted to invite you to participate in this wonderful experience.

We look forward to welcoming you to AOCNR 2015 in Seoul, Korea.

Sincerely,

Nam-Jong Paik, MD, PhD
Organizing Committee Chair
The 1st Asia-Oceanian Congress for NeuroRehabilitation (AOCNR 2015)
